Directions to our BLM camp site – La Posa North LTVA (Long Term Visitor Area) the same place as last year.
At Quartzsite head South on Hiwy 95, La Posa North is the first BLM entrance on the left, approximately three quarters of a mile South of I-10. Alternatively if heading East on I-10, at Quartzsite take Exit 17, at top of ramp turn right then left on the frontage road, Kuehn Street. Continue to Hwy 95 and turn right / South. The La Posa North entrance is about one half mile from Kuehn Street on the left / East side of the highway.

Enter and pay the camping fee ($40 for 14 days). Follow the signs North to our campsite. GMC coaches should be visible from the highway. Call Kirk's cell phone if you have problems. 775-815-8893

GMC 49ers January 2010 Rally
"ROCKs and GEMs and GMCs"
Quartzsite, AZ - January 15th – 17th
(Dry camping - Please bring firewood)

Snowbirds, vendors, collectors, hobbyists and rock hounds descend on Quartzsite, AZ in the winter and the height of the excitement is The Big Tent RV Show in January and The Main Event Gem and Mineral Show in January and February.

RV's and rocks are definitely the uniting theme around which everything in Quartzsite's winter encampment revolves. Tables and tents full of geodes, crystals, and stones from around the world extend for acres, and inventory is piled everywhere.

There's plenty of other stuff for sale, too, and the variety is endless and amazing. It's a swap meet addict's dream. Are you looking for the perfect cow skull for your den? Where else can you choose from a selection of hundreds? Or perhaps you like African art, international flags, leather jackets, pipes, rugs, tools, jeans, antique cars, World War II mementos, camping gear, water filters, chainsaw sculpture, dried peppers, books, shirts, hats, cactus, hand made brooms, jewelry, spears, furniture, gold nuggets..........

The weather can be glorious or it can be breezy and chilly but it will definitely be better than Northern California and Northern Nevada. Bring your caps and jackets just in case.

Be prepared for 49er GMC Club camaraderie, fellowship and big fun in the Arizona winter desert!
